BRIAN AND KARSEE PARR #16159

After many years of short-term missions experiences, Brian and Karsee have been called to serve long-term in Scotland. Karsee came to faith in Christ at age five at the Kirk of the Hills in St. Louis. Brian dedicated his life to Jesus at age 25 and shortly thereafter enrolled at Covenant Theological Seminary where he and Karsee met.

Brian and Karsee married just after she graduated from Covenant with an M.A. in counseling. Brian earned his M.Div. and M.A. in counseling from Covenant a few years later. They have provided individual and marriage and family counseling in St. Louis for several years, working both separately and as a couple. They have also provided case management and counseling services to children with severe mental illnesses and their families.

The Parrs' deepest desire is to care for the hearts of Scottish people, who now live in a thoroughly post-Christian culture. They will use their education and experience to aid in establishing a counseling center as well as to support Scottish congregations with counseling and education. Brian and Karsee yearn to bring the good news of the gospel through counseling rooted in a worldview that recognizes our Creator and Redeemer, and His irresistible message of grace.
